

History Course Handbook

Course Code: HIST-11 | Academic Year 2025–2026

Course Description

Modern World History from the Industrial Revolution to the present.

Course Overview

Students examine major political, economic, and social developments of the modern era, developing skills in source analysis, argumentation, and historical thinking.

Learning Outcomes

By the end of this course, students will be able to:

- 1 Explain the causes and consequences of major modern historical events.
- 2 Evaluate primary and secondary sources for reliability and bias.
- 3 Analyze cause-and-effect relationships and continuity and change over time.
- 4 Construct evidence-based historical arguments in written form.
- 5 Connect historical developments to contemporary global issues.

Assessment

35% essays, 25% source analyses, 15% presentation, 25% final exam.